

Winter Evening Lectures 2018

Clwyd Powys Archaeological Trust
are proud to present our winter lectures, to be held at Powysland Museum, Welshpool, from 18.00 - 19.30

Friday 2nd February: Jeff Spencer, Cadw
"Mid and north-east Wales in the First World War"

Friday 9th February: Abi McCullough, CPAT
"Recent work at Beacon Ring"

Friday 23rd February: Alex Sperr, CPAT
"The archaeology of the introduction of the motor car to rural Wales. An introduction to our Unloved Heritage project"

Friday 2nd March: Eva Bredsdorff, Powysland Museum
"Saving treasures, telling stories"

Friday 9th March: Dr. Irene Garcia Rovira & Dr. Nick Overton,
Directors of Dorstone Hill
(University of Manchester)
"Rock Crystal in the early Neolithic, Dorstone Hill"

Each lecture is £3 entry, or £2 concession, and FREE to Friends of CPAT.

Refreshments available for a small charge at each lecture.

Become a Friend of CPAT 2018 for £10, or £8 concession, and join our network!

Evening lecture tickets may be purchased in advance from CPAT or on the door at Powysland.

For more information about these lectures, about becoming a Friend of CPAT or about any other upcoming CPAT events, please contact Alex Sperr at CPAT on

01938 553670 or alex.sperr@cpat.org.uk

POWYSLAND
MUSEUM

3 Canal Yard, Welshpool SY21 7AQ

Clwyd-Powys Archaeological Trust

